O Sons and Daughters, Let Us Sing

O FILII ET FILIAE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Lord, our God: You have called us to be Your disciples in a world that is lonely, strife-torn, and hungry. And we have turned aside from Your way to the ways of our own concerns and petty needs. We have grown insensitive, not only to distant strife but also to the brokenness in our relationship as family and neighbors. We have complained of the lack of attention from our friends, and we have failed to be friend to others who are lonely. We have dieted our weight away, and we have neglected to share our plenty with those who need it to survive. By Your love, forgive our failures, and renew us to love kindness, to do justice, and to walk humbly with You. Plant in us a vision of Your will, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ANTHEM

Blest are the eyes that have not seen you

Fred Gramann

Blest are the eyes that have not seen you, blest are the hands that have not touched you, blest are the ears that have not heard your voice, yet still believe, yet still believe. Blest are the feet that have not walked with you, Blest are the hearts that hold your teachings true, Blest are all those who simply trust in you, and do believe, and do believe. We long for faith, more precious than gold, that we may one day your presence behold. And when we doubt, as Thomas did, may we remember what you have said: On the last day our eyes will see you, on the last day our hands will touch you, on the last day our ears will hear your voice, this we believe, this we believe.

ADULT EDUCATION

WHO WHAT WHERE WHY: LAKESIDE IN TRANSITION, AN ADULT ED CONVERSATION

Sunday Mornings, Chapel (9:45-10:45am), April 8th – May 20th

Through our transition period and in the months and years ahead, we will discern where and how God is leading us to be the Church. God is already working here. Our task is to discern where God is working and to join God in the work God has for Lakeside to do. Adult Ed will provide us with the opportunity to think together about our part in God's work. We will look at the survey we recently took, which got a surprisingly large number of responses, the comments from the Forum we held after worship on January 29th, and demographic data from Percept, which tells us something about our community and its projections for the near future. We will bring our faith and reason, our hopes, dreams, and concerns, to discern where we believe God is leading us. Led by the Self-Study Committee, the Rev. Bill Love, and more.

COME TOGETHER, COOK TOGETHER

A Women of Interfaith Northern Kentucky Event

Friday, May 4th at 5:30PM

Join us as we swap recipes and cook together with women from the area Islamic Center. We'll gather in the Lakeside Kitchen and get our hands dirty while we get to know each other through the great common denominator: good food. RSVP to Louisa, louisa@lakesidechurch.org or sign up in the Fellowship Hall.

YOUTH FUNDRAISING!

This summer our youth are traveling to Montreat and on a "Pilgrimage of Bridges" (exploring Civil Rights, Interfaith, and other places of meeting across difference). Please help support these trips! Here are some ways you can help our fundraising...

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE – NEW FOR APRIL!

- We give to God out of gratitude; we glorify God through our gifts
- We give thanks for what God has returned to us, Christ's church
- We do God's will through Christ's church, our church, with the gifts God has returned to us

Giving was right on target for March. Thanks to a strong January, we remain a bit ahead of where we need to be as we approach the typically slow summer months.

Thanks to all who have given in advance. Thanks to all who have given on schedule. Thanks to all who have given, even if you are a bit behind schedule. We encourage you all, individually and collectively to stay ahead of schedule. Doing so helps us support our Ministries, God's Ministries, throughout the entire year, not just in December when giving picks up. Thanks again for your generosity in support of God's work!
