HYMN #196

All Glory, Laud and Honor VALET WILL ICH DIR GEBEN
(music for this hymn included at the end of the bulletin)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Creative God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and soul, mind, and strength; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been and amend what we are so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Followers of Christ, let's remember Jesus, who although he was in the form of God, humbled himself, and became obedient to the point of death - all out of love for this world, for you. Jesus knows us fully - every bit of us - and still offers love and forgiveness unconditionally. Out of deep gratitude for the grace shown to us, and as a witness to our faith in Christ, let's accept that forgiveness and live into that love, and be at peace. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Glo - ry be to the Fa - ther, and to the

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

These stanzas for Palm Sunday have been selected and translated from a much longer Latin poem written by a bishop who was the leading theologian in Charlemagne's court. They are sung to a 17th-century German chorale, as adapted for these words in the mid-19th century.
