Come, Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire VENI CREATOR SPIRITUS

CALL TO WORSHIP

(Acts 2:1-4, 17, 21)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of the were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. God declares: "I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh. Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy. The young shall see visions. The elders shall dream dreams. Both men and women shall prophesy. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

PRAYER OF ADORATION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed. By what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your way, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

SILENT PRAYER

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

In this place we find God's word, God's way, God's love, God's forgiveness.
What more do we need to sustain us as we continue as pilgrims along the Way?
In every wilderness, on every road; in every moment, in every life;
in every journey, in every heart,
we receive the daily bread we need: God's hope, God's mercy, God's joy.
Thanks be to God, we are forgiven. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

GLORIA PATRI

This narrative and interpretive text was written to fill what the author perceived as an unfortunate gap in available hymns concerning the Holy Spirit in general and Pentecost in particular. The setting of a 17th-century German tune is from Mendelssohn's oratorio Elijah.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God 286

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life a - new,
2 Breathe on me, Breath of God, un - til my heart is pure,
3 Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am whol - ly thine,
4 Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I nev - er die,

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody begins with a quarter note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, Bb4, and C5. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.
un - til with thee I will one will, to do and to en - dure.
un - til this earth - ly part of me glows with thy fire di - vine.
but live with thee the per - fect life of thine e - ter - ni - ty.

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff concludes with a half note G4. The bass staff concludes with a final chord in the key of B-flat major.

In both Hebrew and Greek, the words for "spirit" can equally well be translated as "breath" or "wind," so it is very appropriate to address the Holy Spirit as the "Breath of God." This tune by an English organist has become the customary one in North American hymnals.
