WELCOME & NEWS OF THE CHURCH

CALL TO WORSHIP

It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praise to God Most High;
to declare God's steadfast love in the morning and God's faithfulness at nighttime.

Those who are planted in the house of the Lord flourish;
no matter their age, they bear fruit and remain new and fresh,
proclaiming; The Lord is righteous! God is my rock!

HYMN #664

PRAYER OF ADORATION.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed.
By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength, we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your way, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

PASSING THE PEACE

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

RESPONSE

Christ Be Beside Me

(Hymn #702)

Christ be beside me; Christ be before me; Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me; Christ be below me; Christ be above me, never to part.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

AMEN (sung response)

Hymnal #599

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

This 20th-century text was created to provide words for this traditional tune named for a small village on the Isle of Mull, off the west coast of Scotland. Through repeated use of "new" and "first," each morning is treated as a re-creation of the promise of the original day.

634 To God Be the Glory

1 To God be the glo - ry; great things he has done!
2 Great things he has taught us; great things he has done,

So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
and great our re - joic - ing through Je - sus the Son;

who yield - ed his life an a - tone - ment for sin, but pur - er and high - er and great - er will be

and o - pened the life - gate that all may go in.
our won - der, our trans - port, when Je - sus we see.

This American gospel song became popular in England in the late 19th century, then returned to this country in the mid-20th century with the Billy Graham crusades. Its continuing popularity may well be due to the freedom from subjective considerations in its praise of God.

ADORATION

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the earth hear his voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the people rejoice!

O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,

and give him the glory: great things he has done!

The writing of this hymn was spurred by a line from the poet T. S. Eliot: "In my end is my beginning."

Shortly after this piece was completed, the author/composer's husband was diagnosed with what proved to be a terminal malignancy, and the original anthem version of this hymn was sung at his funeral.
