WELCOME & NEWS OF THE CHURCH

INTROIT

The One is Blest

WINCHESTER OLD

How blest the one who in God's law finds goodness and delight and meditates upon that law with gladness day and night. That one is nourished like a tree set by the river's side; its leaf is green; its fruit is sure: the works of such abide.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Blessed are those who trust in the Lord.

They shall be like a tree planted by water,
sending out its roots by the stream.

Baptized and freed,
grounded in love,
let us worship God.

HYMN #35

Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

LOBE DEN HERREN

PRAYER OF ADORATION

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
with our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

PASSING THE PEACE

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

ANTHEM

Blessed are the pure in heart

Henry Walford Davies

*Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see our God;
the secret of the Lord is theirs; their soul is Christ's abode.
Still to the lowly soul He doth Himself impart;
and for His cradle and His throne chooseth the pure in heart.*

Hymn #599

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

This very strong 17th-century German hymn employs many phrases from the psalms, especially Psalms 150 and 103:1-6. It did not receive an effective English translation until the mid-19th century, but has remained popular ever since, thanks in part to its stirring tune.

778 As Pants the Deer for Living Streams

(Psalms 42 and 43)

1 As pants the deer for liv - ing streams, in dry or des - ert space,
 2 Tears are my bread both night and day; fools crush me, soul and bone.
 3 Deep calls to deep, the bil - lows roar; they cov - er me with pain.
 4 O send your light to guide me home; my Sav - ior, guide me still.

I thirst for you, O liv - ing God; I long to see your face!
 They laugh and ask, "Where is your God?" I hope in you a - lone.
 I cry for heal - ing and for home; God, show your love a - gain!
 With shout - ing pil - grims I will come to climb your ho - ly hill.

O how I miss the hap - py days when with the throng I'd praise!
 Why cast me off? Where have you gone? Why is your grace with - drawn?
 With - out your peo - ple, who am I? With - out you I will die.
 Then with the harp I'll sing your praise; my hap - py voice I'll raise.

Take cour - age now, my trem - bling heart, for God will take your part!

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Because they share vocabulary, themes, and a refrain, Psalms 42 and 43 are regarded as one extended prayer for help. Although cast as the voice of one person, this is really the plea of the whole Jewish people longing to return from exile and to worship once more in Jerusalem.

This hymn is a testimony of experience. The original seven-stanza German text (based on Psalm 55:22) and its tune were created by the author/composer at the age of twenty in thanksgiving for finding employment many weeks after being left almost penniless following a robbery.
