Seek First God's Kingdom

Thomas Pavlechko

*Seek first God's Kingdom and his righteousness.
And all these things shall be given to you as well.
Seek God.*

CALL TO WORSHIP

Sarah Patton, liturgist

Sing praises to the Lord, for God has done gloriously;
let us sing God's praises throughout all the earth.
Shout aloud and sing for joy,
from the highest peaks, to the deepest caverns.
Shout aloud and sing for joy,
from the tiniest creatures, to the greatest herds.
Shout aloud and sing for joy,
in the midst of our joys and our sorrows.
Shout aloud and sing for joy, as we come to worship the God of all creation!
-Isaiah 12:5-6

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

welfare and not for harm, to give you a future, and my plans for you is sure, to give you a future with hope." No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind conceived what God has prepared for you, you who love him.*

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. This 20th-century text was created to provide words for this traditional tune named for a small village on the Isle of Mull, off the west coast of Scotland. Through repeated use of "new" and "first," each morning is treated as a re-creation of the promise of the original day.

698 Take, O Take Me as I Am

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems of music. The first system covers the first two lines of the lyrics, and the second system covers the last two lines. The music is in 4/4 time and features a simple, repetitive melody in the voice part and a supporting accompaniment in the piano part.

Take, O take me as I am; sum-mon out what I shall be; set your seal up-on my heart and live in me.

The brevity of this text and tune invite repeated singing, either as a sustained chain of sound or as a sung response in a series of prayers. It offers a more reflective approach to the same theme of self-dedication evident in older hymns such as "Just as I Am" (see no. 442).

This text on Luke 4:16–20, the author's first, was written for the United Presbyterian Women's National Meeting in July 1976 because the team planning worship could not find a suitable hymn on that passage. She wrote the words with this vigorous 18th-century tune in mind.
