WELCOME & NEWS OF THE CHURCH

INTROIT

From the Nets of Our Labor

HAMILTON

From the nets of our labors, through the noise and confusion, from the city or sea-shore, Jesus summons us all. We will rise up and follow, Christ before and beside us, loving pattern to guide us, as we answer the call.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The Lord is my light and salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

One thing I asked of the Lord,
that I will seek after:

to live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life.

PRAYER OF ADORATION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
with our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

PASSING THE PEACE

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

ANTHEM

Come and Follow Me

Robert S. Cohen

Follow, come and follow me, leave all that you have behind, follow, come and follow me, all my blessings you will find. Follow me, follow me, I'll show you the way to Life, follow, let your heart believe, that my peace will end your strife. Follow, come and follow me, see the miracles I do, follow, come and follow me, greater things I'll do through you. Follow me, follow me, let your praise my Love proclaim, come, my true servants be, spread through all the world my name.

Hymn #599

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

Go forth into God's world in peace. Be of good courage.
Hold fast to what is good. Return to no one evil for evil.
Strengthen the fainthearted, support the weak, help the afflicted, honor all people.
Love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

BLESSING TO EACH OTHER

May the Lord, our gracious Father, bless you this day;
Give you peace and hope and courage, along your way.
May you stay within God's keeping, in your waking, in your sleeping.
In your joy and in your weeping: God be with you.

For the Beauty of the Earth 14

1 For the beau-ty of the earth, for the glo-ry of the skies,
 2 For the won-der of each hour of the day and of the night,
 3 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de-light,
 4 For the joy of hu-man love, broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
 5 For thy-self, best gift di-vine to the world so free-ly given;

for the love which from our birth o-ver and a-round us lies:
 hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light:
 for the mys-tic har-mo-ny link-ing sense to sound and sight:
 friends on earth, and friends a-bove, for all gen-tle thoughts and mild:
 for that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

In the course of many revisions, the original eucharistic emphasis of this text has shifted to a hymn of thanksgiving for a wide range of human experience, with a Christological summation. It is set here to the tune that is customary in North America, though not elsewhere.

This is one of the most popular songs to emerge from the 1970s revival of religious song in Spain. It asks singers to become like the fishermen who left boats and nets to follow Jesus, first as disciples learning his way of love, then as apostles carrying that love to others.

Written for an easy-to-sing folk melody familiar in England as well as Wales, this 20th-century North American text bears many resemblances to both Psalm 148 and the traditional canticle Benedicite, omnia opera Domini (Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord).
